Terms And Conditions:

As an accredited provider of continuing medical education, the Tucson Osteopathic Medical Foundation must ensure the separation of educational activities from promotional activities. Continuing medical education is for scientific and educational purposes only and will not promote any products or services, directly or indirectly. The exhibitor agrees to adhere to all accrediting board standards, where applicable.

1. No other payment shall be given to the director of the activity, planning committee members, teachers or authors, joint sponsor, or any others involved with the supported activity.
2. Social events or meals at CME activities cannot compete with or take precedence over the educational events.
3. Arrangements for commercial exhibits or advertisements cannot influence planning or interfere with the presentation, nor can they be a condition of the provision of commercial support for CME activities.
4. Product promotion material or product specific advertisement of any type is prohibited in education sessions. The juxtaposition of editorial and advertising material on the products or subjects must be avoided. Live (staffed exhibits, presentations) or enduring (printed or electronic advertisements) promotional activities must be kept separate from educational sessions.
5. Promotional material cannot be displayed or distributed in the educational space before, during or after a CME activity.
6. Exhibitors may not engage in sales or promotional activities while in the space of the educational sessions.
